GO!

SONG Morgan Tucker
WORDS Keiko Takamura & Morgan Tucker
PERCUSSION Devin Nixon

TROMBONE Adam Theis
TRUMPET Mike Olmos
SAXOPHONE Tony Peebles

the heavens are ablaze
the world is on the edge the missiles hiss and scream sunup to sundown
trigger fingers itch
i'm craving metal skin your wires become my veins we are as one now i've been waiting all my life for...

GO!

力を合わせて

今は世界のEND

地球を守って

宇宙の大戦争

GO!

もっと勇気を出して

敵をたおさないと

人類を助けて

宇宙の大戦争

i see the stars behind my eyes
it's time to fly
it's time to fight
put the shields up
power cannon on got the target locked they won't know what hit them i know what i'm here to fight for...

SAXOPHONE Tony Peebles

once there was a time i had all that i wanted now i feel the pull of time slipping away walk the streets alone this town is suddenly haunted scenes replay and echo over the rain waiting for the sun to bleed into the sea

you and me against everything in a photograph

swept up in the thrill of uncontrollable passion bound together, we were all all that we had the hungry look you'd get when seeing me through a camera all the memories are scarred onto my back goodbye

SONG Morgan Tucker

WORDS Morgan Tucker

you salivate for it
strip down and wait for it masturbate for it come on and pay for it you're gonna take what i give to you because it's the only fucking thing
that you know how to do

and if you say something i'm gonna take something i'm gonna take it all away from you better watch your filthy little mouth keep your hands at side or i'll say

GOODBYE

ADDITIONAL VOX Eric Gottesman

you're a sick one i've got a cure coming just wait for it
i'll be on your mind
you're in pain for it feel shame for it you're right where i like
you're right where i like

and if you beg for it i might spare some of it give you a taste of the love that that's inside you are my plaything
a fucking slave thing plead for the death that i bring when i say

tonight
breathe in breath out

hi

SONG Morgan Tucker
WORDS Doc Pop, Morgan Tucker and Ryan Case

GUITAR Ryan Case

knock knock
i'm new on the block feel a little lost wonder if you know a good spot too much too soon?
i can give you some room but the city sky is lit up tonight and you make me so

high
you make me so

hi

late night, city streets feel so strange beneath my feet ran away, found nothing new that face, could it be you?

lost

SONG Morgan Tucker
ADDITIONAL PRODUCTION E.N. Cowell

baby i'm lost again looking for you again
the loneliness sets in and i'm staring at the end it was me

it was you
against the wall against them all

maybe i was never there maybe you never care the emptiness of our routine has dragged us down again and maybe this is the end
